Ointments/Allergies

I make a very good anti-itchy ointment/wound ointment.

1 large jar of Vasaline (HAS to be a large one, or the lower tea tree amount... it won't set up other wise)

1/ 2oz. Tea Tree oil

1/ 4 CUP Betadine

1 tbs Citronella Oil

Liquefy jar in sauce pan 1/3 full of water. It won't melt jar. Once it is liquefied, add other ingredients and mix well and carefully. You have to mix frequently while it is setting up. I put it in Fridge and mix it every few minutes. And flip it over too to sit (Make sure lid is TIGHT), other wise Betadine always settles to bottom. I put this on Justin's chest, under jaw and all around sheath, line from belly button to just inside sheath area. You will feel tiny gnat bumps/bites. And all around the top of his tail if you don't make up itchy spray for tail below.

Bella gets this on her face... all over.

Anti-Itch spray(Tails and Manes)

(Deland Bakery has all the Oils)

32 oz. Bottle

Fill 1/ 4 full with Purified Water(HAS to be Prufied)

Nearly 3/ 4 full of Canola Oil (HAS to be Canola, I've tried all the others)

add:

2 tbs Eucalyptus oil

3 tbs Lavender oil

1 & 1/ 2 Tea Tree Oil (very good antiseptic)

Shake well before each use. I make Justin and Bella's manes and tails oily with it
